FEATURED WINEMAKER

SOZO FRIENDS' CHERYL JONES

What do you get when you pair an award-winning Washington winemaker, grapes from some of the state's top growing regions and your local food bank? Sozo Friends, a local winery dedicated to helping those who are helping others. But unlike any other fundraising source, Sozo Friends raises money through developing and selling wine. Each bottle of wine makes it very clear to the consumer just how much help is being provided, as the number of meals each bottle will provide are printed right on the label. For example, Humanity Riesling provides five meals. Generosity Red provides ten meals, and so on.

Cheryl Barber-Jones first started making wine in 1976 working in Ste. Michelle's lab. As a WSU graduate in Food Sciences, she had actually moved to Seattle to get a job in the dairy business. Thank goodness they weren't hiring and Chateau Ste. Michelle was. Eight years of hard work landed Cheryl the head winemaker position. By 1988 Ste. Michelle was named the Best American Winery by Wine Country magazine. The following year at Vin Expo in Bordeaux, France, Cheryl's '87 Cabernet Sauvignon was awarded the only gold medal for American Red Wine. Cheryl ranks as "One of the best winemakers in the state of Washington." For the last nineteen years Cheryl has been consulting all over the state, giving her the freedom to be a mom and a wife as well as a winemaker. Recently, Sozo Abundant was awarded Best in Class in the Rhône style category at the 2011 International Wine Awards in Los Angeles, California.

Cheryl's Philosophy: "The art of winemaking is like a great chef fine tuning his dish with a pinch of this and a dash of that to get the ultimate result. To bring out the best of any wine, I believe that blending is the key. Sometimes it only takes one percent to change a blend from good to great. As winemaker for Sozo I have the opportunity to do just that while at the same time I get to be part of a cause that brings such joy to me. Being a part of the Sozo circle of friends, your purchase helps feed the hungry whenever you buy the wine I craft."

THE SOZO WINE COLLECTION

HUMANITY RIESLING , Columbia Valley, WA 2010	40
The nose combines peaches and apricots with a hint of honeysuckle. Tasting the wine reminds you of biting into a tree-ripened nectarine with all of the lush and juiciness that is promised.
POTENTIAL PINOT NOIR , Willamette Valley, OR 2009	64
Black cherry, cranberry, orange zest and a pinch of earth form the aromatics. There's more finesse than intensity on the palate with pie cherries, delicious tartness and a bit of milk chocolate.
CONTRIBUTE CABERNET SAUVIGNON , Columbia Valley, WA 2008	40
This cabernet came from the vineyards located on the Wahluke Slope. It was aged in barrels for 16 months before it was blended with Cabernet Franc, Merlot, Malbec, Petit Verdot and then bottled. The aromas of this wine are full of blackberries, currant, smoke and vanilla. Bing cherries dominate in the palate with a bit of chocolate and blueberries to add to the complexity and long finish.
GENEROSITY RED WINE , Columbia Valley, WA 2008	64
Handcrafted from 59% Syrah, 40% Tempranillo and 1% Petit Verdot, each from outstanding vineyards in the Yakima Valley and Horse Heaven Hills appellations. Richness emerges early with chocolate, blackberries, plums, lilac, blueberries and green peppercorns. Aromas followed by the same dark fruit on the palate, with boysenberries and velvety tannins that linger for a long finish.
